

MARKET POLICY FOR SOCIO-POLITICAL/COMMUNITY GROUPS

The Davis Farmers Market does allow non-profit organizations and community information groups to have space at the Market in a designated area which will be determined and assigned by the Market Manager. All interested parties requesting such a space should check with the Manager before setting up for proper placement.

Each group or individual is allowed to come as needed during the year. All non-profit groups must provide the Manager with satisfactory proof of the organization's non-profit status, and of his or her position as a representative of the organization. Resale of items, approved by the Market Manager, related to or in support of participating organizations for fund raising purposes is permitted.

Rules that groups or individuals must follow while present at the Davis Farmers Market are as follows:

1. Individuals or groups may not interfere with Market operations by aggressively soliciting signatures, donations or attention. Such activities may not block sidewalks or access to assigned seller stall spaces.
2. All individuals or groups must stay behind their tables or displays. At no time may representatives walk through the Market handing out information.
3. Individuals or groups must accept the spaces assigned to them by the Market Manager.
4. Each organization or individual must prominently display its name, bring their own tables and chairs and must comply with all applicable Market rules.
5. The Market retains the right to regulate the time, place and manner of activities relating to displays, signs, posters, placards and other expressions of the interests represented. The use of "fighting words," obscenities, grisly or gruesome displays or highly inflammatory slogans likely to provoke a disturbance may be prohibited by the Market Manager.

The Board of Directors has authorized the Market Manager to enforce the above rules. Violation could mean expulsion from the Market. The Market cannot endorse the opinions or positions of any group or individual. If you have questions, contact the Market Manager at (530) 756-1695.
